

LET'S FLY AGAIN
MODTISSIMO 58th EDITION
OCTOBER 7-8 2021 | ALFÂNDEGA DO PORTO

On October 7th and 8th, MODTISSIMO returns to the halls of Alfândega do Porto, for an eye-to-eye meeting, under the motto Let's Fly Again!

Three months away from opening its doors, Modtissimo 58 already has more than 100 companies confirmed: an unmistakable sign that the Portuguese textile industry wants to resume activity as fast as possible, has new collections to present, and is ready to receive both Portuguese and international buyers.

With Europe still in a very uncertain health scenario, and some fairs happening timidly in Paris and Milan, the MODTISSIMO organization is confident that it will be able to return to physical contact with exhibitors and visitors as early as next October. "We are very confident that the next edition of MODTISSIMO will take place, especially because we are being contacted by a high number of companies, both Portuguese and international, and even some that for many years stopped being Modtissimo exhibitors and are now returning", says Manuel Serrão, the fair's director.

The meeting room of the oldest textile sector in the Iberian Peninsula brings together fabric and accessories manufacturers, clothing companies that work both in private label regime and on their own brands, for adult and child, and other services related to the textile sector. As usual, in partnership with CITEVE, the sector's major innovations will be presented at the iTechstyle Showcase, and in the latest edition of the iTechstyle Green Circle, this last one curated by Paulo Gomes.

Regarding the buyers, the organization will soon open the registrations “because we are also only now launching the international promotional campaign”, says Manuel Serrão, also highlighting that, “we are also receiving several registration requests to ensure that the presence at the fairs is ensured”.

In terms of sanitary conditions, the organization is alert to all government guidelines, which will be swiftly accepted and put in place, as was also done in September 2020 (the last physical edition of the fair).

Modtissimo is the largest trade show of the Portuguese textile sector, and the oldest in the entire Iberian Peninsula. Held twice a year – in February at Porto Airport and in September/October at Alfândega do Porto – it brings together the entire Portuguese textile sector, from yarn producers to garment manufacturers, serving as a showcase for one of the largest textile clusters in the entire European region. Thousands of visitors normally pass through its halls, especially international buyers, who, in addition to all the commercial offer, also have the opportunity to visit the beautiful city of Porto.
